

Poster Preparation

Frame Size 900mm×1350mm

Poster Size A0 format (height: 1189 mm, width: 841 mm)

- ※ Both the Japanese and English posters will be arranged in related
- ※ The poster number will be prepared by the secretariat.

- Please write the title, School name, presenter, and content on the poster
- You are free to choose the layout and explanation of the presentation content, but it is preferable to focus on the flow of the presentation, such as development, expansion, conclusion, important points, and original points.
- Please include all references on your poster.
- Regarding posters to be displayed, please avoid making major changes from the registered content. Particularly, a title changes are not permitted for management reasons, so please develop, and extend the content within the scope of the registered title.
- Poster presentations will be explained using posters, and PCs can be used supplementarily during core time. Please note that presentations based on PS that are not based on poster will not provide the compensation effect expected when viewing posters in the absence of the presenter.
- Please bring your own presentation poster. We do not support printing at the venue on the day.

Size of frame (Image)

The poster presentation (Last Year)